RE: REQUEST FOR INFORMATION ABOUT NEWS IN THE PRESS

Dear Sirs.,

FIBRIA CELULOSE S.A., publicly-held company, headquartered at Rua Fidêncio Ramos, n. 302, Tower B, 3rd and 4th (part) floors, Vila Olímpia, CEP 04551-010, city of São Paulo, São Paulo State, registered before the National Taxpayer Registry of the Ministry of Treasury under the No. 60.643.228/0001-21, registered before the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission - CVM as public company category "A", under the code 12793 ("Company" or "Fibria"), represented by its Finance and Investors Relations Officer, hereby presents the information requested by B3 S.A. – Brasil, Bolsa, Balcão ("B3"), under the terms of the Letter nº 211/2018–SAE dated as of February 16, 2018 ("Letter") and received by the Company at the same date.

To improve understanding of the request and the Company's reply, the concern raised in the Letter is transcribed below:

"In the news conveyed by O Estado de São Paulo news, on February 16, 2018 under the heading "Suzano and Fibria return to discuss the possibility of a merger to create a global giant", it is stated, among other information, that:

1. Suzano Papel e Celulose looked after the leader Fibria to discuss the possibility to combine assets or even propose an acquisition;
2. The discussions started around three months ago. Despite there is no official negotiation, representatives of both companies' controlling shareholders met and proposed to discuss the best alternative of association for the two companies;

3. There is no format concluded about the possible business, though;
4. The two companies consulted separately BNDES about the partnership between them and they have not found any objection;
5. The companies have already contacted banks to assist them in a possible conduction of the business.

We request clarification about the item above up to February 19, 2018, with your confirmation or not and other relevant information.”

In response to the request of B3, Fibria informs that it is not aware of any negotiation involving this subject and the entities indicated in such news.

The Company also informs that, in response to the Letter, it has contacted its controlling shareholders, Votorantim S.A. and BNDES Participações S.A. – BNDESPar, requesting clarification about such news and they informed in writing: “We were contacted by Suzano Papel e Celulose S.A.’s representatives in order to discuss strategic alternatives. Aware of our responsibility under the applicable law and regulation, we will timely communicate any relevant development of this matter, if any”.

Finally, the Company repeats its commitment to comply with its disclosure obligations to its shareholders, investors and the market in general, according to the capital market regulation and its Information Disclosure Policy.

With that being said, we renew our vows of high esteem and we remain available for any additional clarification.

Sincerely,

Guilherme Perboyre Cavalcanti
Finance and Investors Relations Officer
